Accommodation

Comfortable, bright and cleverly designed, the new Merry Fisher 695 Serie2 will be a true partner for family coastal cruising.

The new bench seat frees additional space and slides forward, enabling the engine to be fully raised. The boat benefits from the new generation signature style, with large windows in the hull and an incredibly bright interior. While seated in the cockpit, the view of the sea is breathtaking! The model also features a co-pilot bench seat by Jeanneau, in no time, the seat moves from the saloon position to cruising position, to suit diverse preferences and uses.

Forward cabin with double berth (Infill to make larger)
Marine head and toilet (Holding tank as well as tap in heads)
Wheelhouse interior curtains
Luxury galley (Gas stove and sink)
Berth complement saloon (Table drops to make a double berth in saloon)
Oval cockpit table for exterior
