

Beneteau First 345

Year:	1985	Heads:	1
Location:	Aktio, Greece	Cabins:	3
LOA:	34' 5" (10.50m)	Berths:	8
Beam:	11' 6" (3.50m)	Keel:	Fin keel
Draft:	6' 3" (1.9m)	Engines:	1

Remarks:

The Bénéteau First 345 is a lively cruiser/ racer that appeals to the demanding sailor, especially with it's brand new sails.

The three service batteries and 150 W solar power lay out make the boat completely independent of shore power. This opens up the possibility to long time anchoring in deserted bays without having to refrain from a cold drink.

Remarks :

The Bénéteau First 345 is said to be a racing boat with a cruising interior. Designed by Jean Berret, whose fondness for combining comfort with performance can be found in most if not all of his builds.

With sleek exterior lines and a surprisingly roomy interior, she is perfect for first-time owners or even weathered sailors looking to downsize to something more manageable.

With many additions and upgrades, this Beneteau First 345 is definitely worth having a look at.
