Remarks :

Hanse 325, based on its predecessor the successful Hanse 320, combines elegance, comfort and great performance, quite remarkable for a yacht of this size.

And we have here a gleaming example. She is absolutely spotless. An easily handled family yacht she is also quite capable of being sailed single-handed.

With her self-tacking jib, the mainsail is in-mast furling with lines led back to the cockpit, her sail handling is a breeze. She also has a cruising chute

The owners sailed from the UK to Greece and were more than impressed by her performance whether under sail or engine. She has been maintained with care by the current owners

Features

Self-tacking headsail

In mast furling

Chart plotter on deck

Large heads

Low engine hours only 890

The Hanse 325 is certain to introduce many new sailors to the Hanse brand? and in that respect particularly, she's surely destined to be a great success.? - Yachting Monthly.
