Remarks:

The Lagoon 39 Premium Owner's version, with all maneuvers being controlled from the helm station, keeps the deck and cockpit clear for guests and family. For a boat of less than 40', the large saloon area with the fully equipped L-shape galley is ideally suited to accommodate friends and family. The 360-degree window design provides ample natural light and enhances the volumes of the saloon.

OWNERS REMARKS & HISTORY

This Lagoon 39 has had one owner since new, an ex Merchant Navy Deck Officer, Navy

Reservist and RYA Instructor. He and his wife have been permanent liveaboards since buying the boat from the factory in Sable d'olonne in 2015.

Their adventure started on the Atlantic coast of France going on to Spain and Portugal before entering the Mediterranean. Next, they cruised the Mediterranean coasts of France, Italy and Sardinia, the Adriatic, the Ionian and Aegean Islands and finally reaching Turkey before returning to Western Greece.

Perfect for a liveaboard family with space for friends and relatives to visit. She is superbly equipped for long-distance cruising with ample solar panels, a large generator, a water maker, a washing machine and tumble drier. Additionally she boasts of a Code Zero and a Cruising Chute along with extra ground tackle and floating lines for those isolated anchorages.

She has been carefully maintained and modified over the years and including a number of well-designed improvements providing a fully equipped laundry, a spacious sail and rope locker, a dedicated anchor locker and additional under bed storage
