Accommodation

There's a sense of spaciousness down below that's truly remarkable. It almost feels more like an apartment than a boat.

The longitudinal galley runs along the port side and includes a drawer style fridge and freezer, lots of counter space with substantial fiddles, storage lockers above and below. The island in the saloon conveniently houses the pop-up big screen television. The navigation station is aft to starboard and Hanse calls it the office. It includes a large opening desk, several drawers and a comfy, well-supported swivelling chair.

A large saloon table that drops to form yet another bunk. Eight can sit comfortably for dinner but only six can watch the movie afterwards. The saloon and galley flow well ""together, allowing the cook to be part of the conversation while meals are prepared.

The owner's cabin is elegant with a centerline double berth and rich mahogany lockers above. There is a large hanging locker to starboard and a head and separate shower to port. The two aft cabins feature double berths, hanging lockers, shelves along the sides and en suite heads. The engine is accessed from behind the companionway and through the aft cabins.

- 6 berths in 3 cabins
- Forward master cabin & double aft cabins
  Interior joinery in high quality marine plywood, American Cherry gloss Style
- Teak & Holly floor
- Blue Upholstery
- Owner's master cabin forward with island berth, extensive hanging lockers and drawers including an ensuite with a separate head and separate shower
- Main saloon to stbd with U-shaped sofa around large saloon table
  Seating for 6-8
- Retractable TV unit
- Wine cooler inset in navigation suite
- Navigation station to stbd aft of saloon seating with large comfortable nav seat incl armrests
- Galley to port
- Twin Aft cabins with double berths and ensuite heads
- Electric toilet in port head
- Manual toilet in Starboard head.
