Remarks :

1979 Westerly Centaur, fitted with a new Beta engine in 2011. She is in very good condition and is well spec'd.
1979 Build, and registered in 1980. She is in lovely condition for a 36 year old boat. The current owner has spent a lot of money on her in recent years.
The 2011 engine has just 236 hours on the clock, and the navigation electronics have been upgraded to include VHF DSC, GPS Chartplotter and AIS system.
Inside has benefited from recent seats, curtains and cooker in 2013.
All in all a very nice cruising boat, which will give years and years of enjoyable safe sailing.

Lying near near our office in Milford Haven ready for viewing.
