Remarks :

'Fingals' is one of the last range of yachts built by Sadler Yachts to Stephen Jones' design. Constructed in 2005 and registered in 2007, she is on her second owner and still looks like a new boat.

Sadler 290's are probably one of the finest bilge keel yachts available to date, their seaworthiness and speed have surprised many sailors, including the current owner. With a RCD Class A rating this model will give you the complete package for both flexible and safe cruising.

Take a look at the extensive Inventory this boat offers, viewing is highly recommended. Currently laying ashore at Network Yacht Brokers Milford Haven.
