Jeanneau unveils a new version of the Cap Camarat 12.5 WA, the "Full Windscreen" version, designed to combine high-speed cruising and unprecedented shelter from the wind and rough weather. This very protective boat offers a particularly high level of cruising comfort. The signature full windscreen is distinguished by tinted glass, for a distinctive style, its stylised black trim on the framework, and highlighted logo. The resulting design is more assertive, sportier, while upholding the key principles of the line: safety, performance, thrilling sensations, and moments of pleasure to share with family and friends.

Accommodation

Even if the Cap Camarat 12.5 WA benefits from generous size, its designers worked to maximize the possibilities offered for each square metre/foot. The result is an extremely comfortable boat, with a multi mission attitude, a do-everything layout above paired with a lower deck that combines clever and comfortable space for overnighting. The forward sundeck doubles as a saloon, with raised triple chaise lounge seating and facing bench seating, with removeable table, backing the anchor locker. An electric drop-down terrace to port provides easy access for swimming, while extending the width of the cockpit. On the interior, the owner's cabin, located amidship, features a double berth and a single berth, which can be combined to create one immense king-size berth. The fully equipped galley is complete with a ceramic cooktop, fridge, optional microwave, plus storage while the forward salon seating transforms into an additional king-sized berth
