Broker Remarks

This well-presented Bonwitco 375 offers a highly capable package perfect for coastal fishing, estuary cruising, or acting as a reliable tender. The boat is in clean, tidy condition and comes completely ready for the water with a reliable engine and a modern road trailer.

Key Specifications & Features

- Make/Model: Bonwitco 375 (Renowned for its double-skinned, highly stable fiberglass hull).
- Engine: Mariner outboard engine, benefiting from a recent comprehensive full service to ensure absolute reliability for the new owner.
- Trailer: Galvanized single-axle road trailer, only 3 years old, making towing safe and hassle-free.
- Deck Layout: Open and uncluttered layout featuring a central wooden thwart, robust rowlocks, and a practical bow storage locker/seating area.
- Location: Currently sitting in the brokerage yard at Milford Marina, ready for immediate viewing.

The Bonwitco Advantage Bonwitco boats are highly regarded in the boating community for their sturdy construction and exceptional stability, punching well above their weight in choppywaters.At approximately 12 feet (3.75m), this model is incredibly easy to manage, launch, and recover single-handedly.

Because the heavy lifting has already been done—the engine is freshly serviced and the trailer is only three years old—you will not need to worry about the typical hidden maintenance costs associated with buying a used small boat. It is a genuine "hitch up and go" setup.
