Broker Remarks

Who is she?

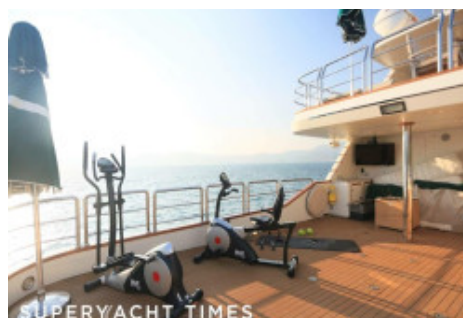

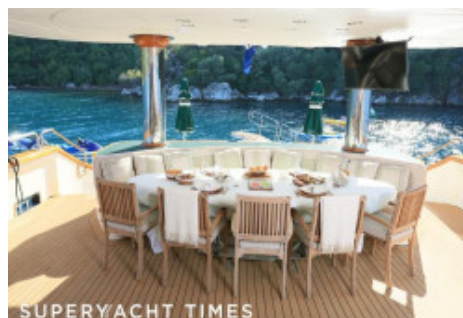

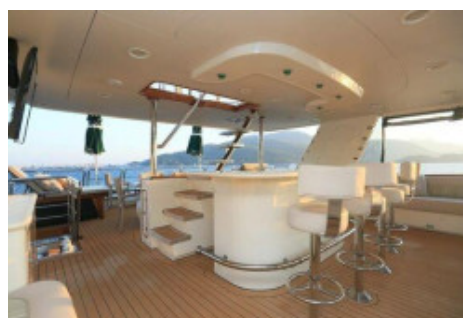

Forty Love is a 42-metre tri-deck motor yacht from West Coast Custom of Long Beach — a builder that made its name doing things differently. Designed by Jack Sarin Naval Architects on a semi-displacement hull, she sits at the intersection of serious passage-maker and unashamed entertainer: 2,700 HP of Caterpillar power on demand, and enough deck space to forget you're at sea.

On deck

The foredeck Jacuzzi signals intent immediately — this is a yacht built around the moments between destinations. Aft, the main deck dining area is the social heart of the boat: an oval teak table large enough for a full gathering, open to the water on three sides. Above, the upper deck revolves around a curved wet bar — the kind of space that keeps guests on deck long after sunset. Higher still, the sun deck doubles as an open-air gym with real equipment, not an afterthought. After dark, the underwater lights take over.

Inside

The interior tells two stories. The main saloon is formal and considered — deep mahogany joinery, oval ceiling detailing, a dining table that holds its own against any shore-side venue. Forward, the lounge offers a quieter register. Down below, the mood shifts entirely: the staterooms are finished in warm maple and ash, the master suite lit by ambient LEDs, unhurried and private. The galley is built to feed a crowd without compromise.

In short

A 42-metre ABS-classed semi-displacement tri-deck with the range for extended Mediterranean cruising and the presence to match. Offered at €5,800,000.
