Remarks :

For sale Hunter Legend 290. Designed with a spacious cockpit, the Hunter Legend 290 provides ample room for relaxation and socializing on deck. Its well-thought-out layout makes handling the yacht easy, even for solo sailors, while still accommodating a small crew comfortably.

This is an ideal boat for family cruising as all lines lead aft and the mainsheet gantry keeps them out of the cockpit and away from little fingers!

Below deck, the Hunter Legend 290 features a cozy yet functional interior, with well-appointed accommodations including a comfortable sleeping area, a galley and a marine head. The clever use of space ensures a comfortable stay on board for extended cruising trips.

The bilge keels of the Hunter Legend 290 offer several advantages, including shallow draft capabilities, allowing access to shallower waters and coastal areas where deeper-draft vessels cannot venture. Additionally, the keels provide enhanced stability both underway and at anchor, as well as giving the option to take the ground on sandy anchorages.
