Practical Boat Owner, July 1999

"To say that the Elan 295 has potential is an understatement. She fills a gap in the market for a sporty yet unextreme 30-footer which - to my mind - comes closer than most to achieving the perfect balance between performance, comfort and simplicity."

Broker's Comments

"This Elan 295 has nice lines and is a yacht with sailing performance. She is antifouled and ready to go."
