

Yacht Attalia 32

A white sailboat named 'ATTALIA' is shown from the side, floating on choppy water. The boat has a blue inflatable dinghy on the deck and a black cover over the cockpit. The name 'ATTALIA' is visible on the hull. The background shows a shoreline with trees and buildings under a cloudy sky. A red diagonal graphic element is in the bottom right corner.

Remarks :

This 1986 Jeanneau Attalia 32 is in very good condition. She comes with a Yanmar 16HP diesel engine, saloon, forward cabin, aft cabin and heads. Her inventory includes 2022 standing rigging, mainsail with 2024 lazybag, furling genoa, spinnaker, 2024 sprayhood, seven berths, 2022 chart-plotter, 2022 radar, tiller-pilot, hot water and more. She is an excellent sea boat and is an excellent example of a family cruising boat, with the potential to race around the cans. Loads of work has been carried out on this boat and viewing is recommended.
