Remarks :

This 2003 Bayliner 265 has been cherished by its current owner, transforming it from a simple weekender yacht into a vessel capable of comfortable long-term trips. Powered by a reliable single Volvo Penta KAD32 engine, it offers a great balance of performance and fuel efficiency for comfortable cruising.

Inside, the boat sleeps up to six people and comfortably sleeps four people, with a double V-berth forward and a private double mid-cabin berth. The galley is fully equipped with a spirit stove top, microwave, refrigerator, and sink, allowing you to prepare meals easily during your time on board.

The spacious cockpit offers plenty of seating, with a fold-away aft bench and lounge seating perfect for entertaining. For cooler weather, a full canvas cover ensures guests can still enjoy the water, while onboard night lighting creates a warm atmosphere for evening gatherings. The helm is well-equipped, giving excellent visibility and control. Additionally, there's a swim platform with a ladder for easy access to the water.

Currently stored on the hard while the owner is traveling, the boat is in great condition and turn key ready to be back on the water and embark on its next adventure.
