Sailing magazine review says "She demonstrates her manoeuvrability, she sails smartly to weather in gusty conditions, it was easy to forget we were test sailing a boat with a LOA of just 35'3" it felt and handled like a bigger boat, especially when the GPS inched towards 7 knots over the ground. A versatile Marc Lombard design the Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 35 combines a lively hull shape and spacious interior with an easy to handle sail plan controlled from a comfortable aft cockpit. She was inspired by the success of its big sister the 37 and incorporates many of the same features.
