Accommodation

The Steadfast 24 sleeps four in two doubles and a quarter berth. She has a heads compartment and a galley with two burner stove and grill .

Remarks :

The Steadfast 24 is a capable bilge keel motorsailer built by Victoria Yachts in the Stone Pier yard, Warsash. She was designed by Robert Tucker who was also responsible for the Coribee and Newbridge Navigator.

'Sassy' has been well maintained and updated by her present owner of 12 years, including having a new Nanni diesel engine installed in 2006. She is a comfortable cruising yacht with two helm positions, she has a wheel down below and a tiller in the cockpit.

She is easily sailed short or single-handed. she has a rolling genoa and an Auto-helm.

For cruising comfort, she has a Webasto hot air heating system and shore power.

This Steadfast 24 is a comfortable cruising yacht in good condition. She can be viewed afloat in Lymington, Hampshire.
