*These rates vary according to the terms of your loan and are affected by the APR.
The above example may vary according to the date of completion of the loan.
Loans are subject to approval and incurring additional administration and service costs.
*APR is the annual percentage rate of interest and is the interest rate before any discounts or other benefits. It is used to compare the cost of different loans. The APR is expressed as a percentage of the amount borrowed. The APR is calculated on the basis of the interest rate, the amount borrowed, the term of the loan and the frequency of the repayments. The APR is not a measure of the total cost of the loan. For more information, please visit <http://www.gov.uk/apr>.
