

Beneteau 411

A white Beneteau 411 sailboat is docked at a concrete pier. The boat's name, "CORRA LINN", is printed in black on the transom. It features a blue canvas enclosure over the cockpit and several white fenders hanging from the side. The boat is secured to the pier with ropes. In the background, a coastal town with multi-story buildings and palm trees is visible, along with mountains in the distance under a blue sky with scattered clouds. A red diagonal graphic element is present in the bottom right corner of the image.

Remarks :

We're pleased to offer to the market this lovely example of the ever popular Beneteau 411 Oceanis, with the popular 2 cabin configuration offering the uniquely located forward heads compartment. Well worth a look as a circa 40ft cruiser this model is popular for good reason making unique use of its space.

The saloon is finished in blue upholstery and with wood fittings throughout all in good condition.

Book a viewing early to avoid disappointment!
