Owner Open to Offers

Rauschen is a Hallberg Rassy 352 built in 1982 to a Christoph Rassy design, Hallberg Rassy built over 800 of these boats and it is widely respected as one of the most popular boats of its day with its strong construction and innovative interior layout allowing owners the space and sea keeping to undertake longer passages in comfort and style.

Rauschen is well looked after by her owner and offers a good possibility for anyone who wants to spend some time cruising longer distances in comfort and security with numerous upgrades done by the current owner .

Hallberg Rassy remains a brand with extremely strong values today built on those same values and principles as the 352 and commands a strong and loyal following amongst the sailing fraternity - sailing on a Hallberg-Rassy you will never find yourself bereft of willing hands and assistance from people who will be keen to join you and experience one of these fantastic boats, even today they remain a competitively quick sailing yacht with as recently as 2018 a Hallberg Rassy 352 placing amongst the top finishers in the ARC+ in their category - a true testament to the ability of this wonderful boat.
