The saloon is light and airy upholstered in white gold trim and long coach roof windows provide plenty of light and sea views. The central saloon table comprises of fold up leaves and a storage compartment. One of the key features with the saloon table is that the compression post is placed at the forward end of the table to minimise interference when dining. To the starboard side the L-shaped galley is well equipped with a 2 burner gas stove, oven, grill and 100 litre fridge compartment with a 12v compressor. With plenty upper storage for glassware the galley offers plenty of space and the slate finished worktops have built in hand hold for extra stability on board. To the port side the heads offers a shower and stainless steel hand basin. This vessel is the three cabin layout and benefits from two double aft cabins. Both provide a double berth 2 metres in length and 1.4 metres in width with hanging locker and a large opening hatch and opening port. Moving forward the double doors lead to the forward cabin providing privacy when closed and contributing to the airy atmosphere when open. To the portside is a large hanging locker complimented by a seating area on the opposite side next to the berth. Moving above deck the cockpit is large and spacious and the fold out swim platform provides extra space when moored or anchored. The upgraded teak cockpit table has fold down leaves, storage and cup holders perfect for relaxing and entertaining guests on board.

Remarks :

The Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 349 designed by Marc Lombard is one of the most popular cruisers of the modern sailboat era. Renowned for its performance at sea combined with a comfortable and spacious design this boat is a popular choice as an all-round family cruiser. With a large safe cockpit area, twin wheel and drop down transom providing extended swim platform this boat makes an ideal vessel for sailing adventures, relaxing and family fun. The three cabin layout offers two double aft cabins plus double forward berth enclosed behind double doors. The large spacious saloon upholstered in white gold trim ensures a light and airy atmosphere below deck. The well equipped L-shaped galley with two gas burner hob oven, grill and integrated countertop fridge provide everything you need whilst on board. Equipped with B&G navigational equipment she is ready for her next adventure. Freshly serviced in January 2022 the boat has been well maintained and cared for and has had one owner since new.
