Remarks :

This Cobra 1050 is a well maintained and equipped yacht, despite her age her condition is very good and it is clear that she has had loving owners throughout her time.

There has been no expense spared with the upgrades to this yacht, here are a few of the main upgrades that every purchaser is looking for in a modern standard fit-out; recent running rigging replacement, good canvas package, Eberspacher cabin heating, hot & cold pressurised water substantial battery banks, with solar panel charging and a quality portable 12V fridge.

The Cobra 1050 offers fantastic accommodation with up to three double berths and two single berths in the saloon, there is a spacious head, a good size galley and a full-size chart table. For a boat built in 1979, she was well ahead of the game with regards to layout., she feels spacious and is very comfortable for six people.

The Cobra 1050 has been very well constructed, when you stand on deck she feels extremely solid underfoot, she has a deep fin keel that offers stability in a seaway.

If you are looking for a good value then you should certainly come and take a look at this Cobra 1050!!
