Accommodation

Remarks :

This Albin 23 is a superb little motor cruiser, she is compact, but Albin has made great use of the internal volume.

The brand first began manufacturing diesel engines in 1899, then swiftly moved on to manufacture sailboats; Albin is synonymous with the sailing yachts Albin Ballard, Vega, Shipman 28 the list of sailboats goes on! They later went on to build motorboats then ceased trading; then, the companies rights were bought by an American company which lead to the production of more powerboats and relaunching the brand.
