Remarks :

We are delighted to offer for sale 'Hebridean Explorer' an Aquastar Custom Flybridge 50 from 1988. A truly versatile vessel which could be put to many uses. She is currently lying afloat in Brighton marina. She was in recent years coded for charter work on the west coast of Scotland (Coding has expired) She is currently being put to good use as a floating family home being frequently taken across the English Channel to France.

The accommodation for the size of vessel is surprising, with three good size cabins forward, a twin aft 3 heads compartments, great galley and saloon and a very large fly-bridge deck.

She has twin Mercedes V6 diesel engines giving economical displacement cruising speeds.

To appreciate the size and substantive nature of 'Hebridean Explorer' she needs to be viewed, please call to make a prior appointment.
