Remarks :

The Jeanneau 12.50 Voyager is one of the most successful early models with a has a great reputation for their solid build.

This Voyage 12.50 was built in 1988 by a standard version layout with two guest cabins aft with en suite basin, one bunked bed cabin, the owner cabin in the front. Two toilet, one aft with just head and shower in the forward cabin.

The interior is a good compromise between seagoing and marina comfort with a very good chart table and big saloon with U-shaped dining table (convertible) Opposite to dining table is the linear galley with plenty of storage fridge and a 3-burner stove with oven. Aft to starboard is the sit-down navigation station.
