Remarks:

The Caravela 22, designed by Leo da Costa is a small racing yacht with the potential for family cruising. Andante has received a professional refurbishment from hull, engine and interior. Her road trailer has also been overhauled. She is shiny, shiny and in mint condition, ready to drive or sail away! She will be ideal for a family cruising, or a dinghy sailor ready to move up to a larger vessel. Great fun for a couple around the cans too!

Her lifting keel offers the opportunity to navigate shallow waters. In turn key condition. A trailer sailer in this condition, doesn't come around that often. Blink.... and you just might miss her..... UK delivery available.
