Accommodation

A rare chance to find a Riva Tropicana 43 in this condition. Launched in 1992 she is currently with her third owner. Passionate about yachts he undertook a complete overhaul of both engines in 2006 and a complete refit in 2008, adding several features and improving this already famous brand. Used seasonally for an average of 20 hours means that she is in a fine and rare example available today. Lying south of France and available for viewing immediately.

Large ensuite double forward with convertible salon and a single berth in the salon.
