Jeanneau Cap Camarat

Broker Remarks

This Jeanneau Cap Camarat 635 open, was built in November 2006 but is a 2007 model. She is powered by an economical Evinrude Etec 150hp outboard engine with only 130 engine hours. Her inventory includes a Garmin fishfinder, Raymarine VHF, swivel seats at the centre console, cockpit cushions and a good road trailer. She is in lovely condition.

Mechanical and Rigging

Evinrude E-TEC

The Cap Camarat 635 has been designed by Italian stylists Garroni, working closely with the Jeanneau design department. The real skill of the designers can be seen in the detailing and especially in the cockpit layout forward and aft of the of the central console.

The impression is one of space wherever you look.
